

Putting a spring in your step - and travels!

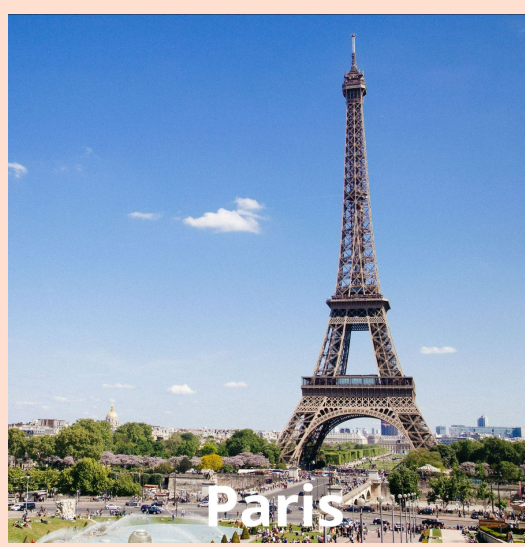

Spring is the perfect time to go on a weekend getaway.

Rome, Kraków, Barcelona and Paris... all diverse cities in Europe, with one thing in common - all have Diaverum clinics that accept holiday patients, and are perfect for either long or short getaways. These cities really have a lot to offer and one can easily visit them again and again.

What are you waiting for? Pick a destination, book your treatments, pack your best walking shoes and prepare yourself for a few days of lovely foods and fulfilling experiences while travelling as a CKD patient.
