

This special edition of our newsletter is all about Greece!

Discover the wonders of one of the oldest countries in the world, with our d.HOLIDAY programme. Explore the historic sites and vibrant city life of its capital, Athens. From there, travel to Chalkida to witness the fascinating tidal changes of the Evripus Strait. Get ready to experience the unique charm and culture that Greece offers, all while continuing to receive your dialysis treatment in one of our clinics.

Athens

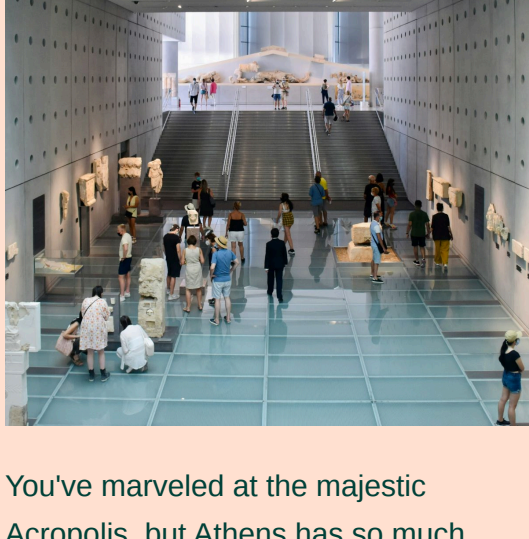

Step into a living museum where every corner is a postcard-perfect moment.

Athens is a city where the old and new meet. Walk through ancient places like the Agora, where people once gathered to talk and trade, or wander through the charming streets of Plaka, a historical neighbourhood with impressive buildings and colourful flowers. It feels like stepping back in time. Yet, Athens is also a busy, modern metropolis. Each neighbourhood offers its own unique atmosphere. Savour the local cuisine in cozy tavernas, where the smell of grilled meat and herbs fills the air. If you're an art lover, immerse yourself in the city's rich cultural scene, with numerous museums and theatres showcasing music, art, and performances.

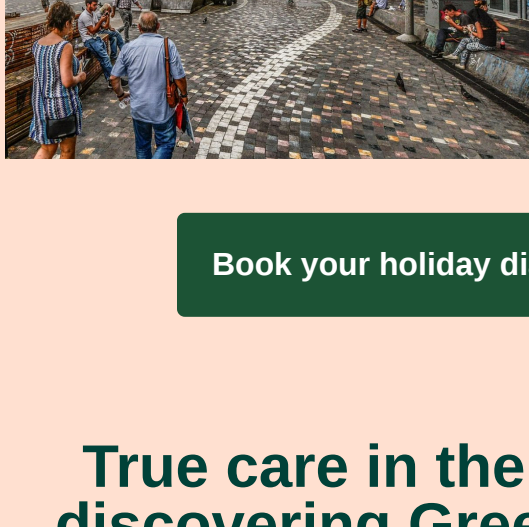

Must-sees you can't miss!

This UNESCO World Heritage Site is the crown jewel of Athens. The Acropolis is a hilltop citadel that is home to several important ancient buildings, including the Parthenon, the Temple of Erechtheion, and the Propylaea, dating back to the 5th century BC.

Right next to the Acropolis, the Acropolis Museum offers a captivating glimpse into ancient Athenian history. This modern museum beautifully showcases artifacts discovered on the Acropolis and its slopes. See the Caryatids, admire the Parthenon friezes, and enjoy stunning views of the Acropolis from the top floor. It's a captivating look at ancient Athenian history.

You've marveled at the majestic Acropolis, but Athens has so much more to offer! Don't even think about leaving without experiencing the charming, winding streets of Plaka, the city's old historical neighborhood. Get lost in its labyrinthine alleys, discover hidden tavernas, and soak up the vibrant atmosphere.

Lastly, head to Monastiraki! This bustling neighborhood, right in the heart of the city, is a fantastic blend of old and new. Explore its lively square, browse the endless stalls of the famous Monastiraki Flea Market and soak in the atmosphere. Monastiraki offers a sensory feast and a true taste of modern Athens.

Chalkida

Discover this magnificent coastal town where the Atlantic Ocean meets the charm of history.

Located just 70 km from Athens, Chalkida, the main city on the island of Euboea (Evia), seamlessly blends a rich historical background with stunning views of the Gulf and the mainland. Its vibrant waterfront enhances its charm, offering a perfect mix of history and scenic beauty. With a mild climate, lush landscapes, and warm hospitality, Chalkida is an ideal destination for relaxation and rejuvenation.

How to spend a day in Chalkida

Morning: Euripus & Fortress Views

Witness the 'Crazy Waters' of the Euripus Strait, a stunning tidal spectacle. Then, explore the Karababa Fortress for panoramic views and a dose of history.

Lunch: Seaside Flavours

Enjoy fresh seafood and Greek cuisine at a local taverna by the harbour. Savour the rich Mediterranean flavours and the sea breeze.

Afternoon: Waterfront & Ancient History

After lunch, stroll the waterfront, enjoying the magnificent harbour views. Then, delve into Chalkida's past at the Archaeological Museum, or try a traditional Greek coffee at a coffee shop, known as kafenio.

Evening: Sunset & Local Life

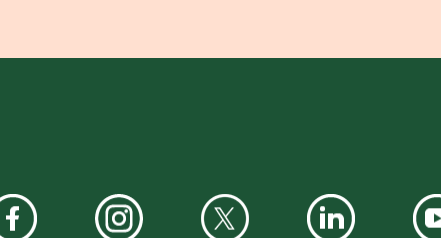

Catch a stunning sunset over the Euripus Strait. Enjoy dinner and drinks in town, experiencing Chalkida's lively evening atmosphere
